SOCIETY

New Year's Day will be brought to a close tomorrow in a brilliant manner by the annual Library Ball and indications are that one of the largest crowd of dancers ever assembled at a similar event will be present. Many, not caring to dance, will go to watch the festivities from the gallery. A report was circulated this morning that the ball had been postponed on account of the sudden death of Mrs. Leona Thompson but the report proved inaccurate. The members of the library board did consider such action, but decided that, inasmuch as many tickets had been sold, they were not in a position to declare a postponement however much their friendship for the deceased lady prompted.

One of the New Year's eve parties tonight will be in the Moose hall. The local Moose and their families will assemble early about the banquet board for a wild game supper and later will dance the old year out and the new year in.

Mrs. Ben L. Burroughs and Mrs. Roy Alexander, who have been visiting in Portland for the past week, are spending a few days on the coast at the home of Mrs. Burroughs' grandmother.

The death of the old year tonight and the birth of the new will be the occasion for many watch parties throughout the city. Several grill parties have also been arranged.

Glee Club Manager Here.

Don Rice, student manager of the U. of O. Glee Club which is touring eastern Oregon, is here today making final arrangements for the appearance of the club at the Oregon theater on the night of January 3. He declares the club is one of the best in the history of the college and is lavish in his praise of Albert Gillette, the soloist, who, he declares, has a voice and bearing that is simply wonderful.

Reopens Music House.

J. C. Gallagher, who was in Pendleton for six months or longer eight years ago and served as manager of the Ellers Piano Co., has been here today for the purpose of establishing a branch house here. He has leased the room adjoining the lobby in the Golden Rule hotel and will have the piano store there. Mr. Gallagher is now manager for the Ellers Co. at Walla Walla. On leaving here eight years ago Mr. Gallagher went to Boise and opened a music house there in partnership with C. B. Sampson.

Another Parcel Post Law.

In connection with the increase of the postage limit of the parcel post which goes into effect tomorrow, the local postoffice authorities this morning received notification that it will be unlawful for anyone to ship the dead carcasses of any animals or birds killed contrary to the state or federal game laws. Animals and birds killed in season may, however, be sent by parcels post providing they do not exceed the weight limit. No dead animal or bird can be shipped to any point that is not in the first or second zones and all parcels containing the bodies or any part thereof, must be labeled on the outside.

Mrs. Thompson's Funeral Tomorrow.

The funeral of Mrs. Leona Thompson, pioneer Pendleton lady who died suddenly in Portland yesterday, will be held tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the Episcopal church. Interment will be made in Olney cemetery. Rev. Charles Quinney will conduct the ceremonies. The body of Mrs. Thompson will arrive on No. 18 tomorrow and will be accompanied by her three daughters, Mrs. Seth Catlin, Mrs. Edwin J. Burke and Mrs. Clark Nelson and Mr. Catlin and Mr. Burke. In mentioning the relatives of the deceased who survive here, the name of one sister, Mrs. H. F. Johnson of Portland, was unintentionally omitted yesterday.

60 Days for Disturbance.

For attempting to break up a religious meeting, John Montano, a Mexican Indian, was today sentenced to 60 days in the county jail by Justice of the Peace Joe H. Parkes. His offense was committed last Friday evening at the Presbyterian mission at Tutuilla. He appeared at the church during the services in a very intoxicated condition and announced an intention of cleaning out the church. Immediately a dozen strong-armed worshippers pounced upon him and overpowered him. They then bound his hands and feet with wire and kept him prisoner until Supt. Swartzlander arrived. The superintendent swore out a warrant for his arrest on a charge of vagrancy and he pleaded guilty this morning. He stated in explanation that he was so drunk that he did not know what he was doing but the judge refused to accept that as an excuse. Members of the congregation regret the occurrence as they all liked Montano and had a high regard for him when he was sober. They are not inclined to censure him but rather the bootlegger who furnished him with the whiskey.

Local Woman Wants Divorce.

Alleging that her husband, George W. Spere, deserted her on December 6, 1912, and is now living apart from her in Hoquiam, Wash., Florence May Spere of this city today commenced suit for a divorce. The couple were married in Sacramento, Calif., in June, 1911, and have no children. Mrs. Spere has a boy, Leslie Gibbs, 16 years old, by a former marriage. W. M. Peterson is her attorney.

Echo Couple to Marry.

A marriage license was issued yesterday afternoon to Helstand M. Moore and Avis M. Gaunt, an Echo couple.

State Case Against Bootlegger.

As soon as Albert Dupuis has completed serving his term in the city jail for giving liquor to Indians he will be brought before the state courts on a similar charge, Supt. E. L. Swartzlander having filed a complaint against him.

Indians to Have Big Dinner.

A delegation of Indians of the Tutuilla mission were in the city this afternoon purchasing supplies for their big New Year's dinner tomorrow. A 100 pounds of Chinook salmon and four boxes of pies, cakes, doughnuts and other pastries were among the purchases. The dinner will be held at noon and it is expected that 200 people will sit down to it.

Experts' Report Tonight.

At the meeting of the council this evening, the report of the experts who recently audited the books and records of the water commission, will be read and formally acted upon and the council, as a committee of the whole, will submit its report upon its recent investigation of the work done on the gravity system. When these reports are made, the resignations of Commissioners Will Moore, Marion Jack, G. L. La Due and J. T. Brown will automatically become effective. Whether their successors will be named tonight remains to be seen.

Justice Case Is Appealed.

Marion Jack, well known farmer, today appealed the case in which he is defendant and J. M. Wagner plaintiff, to the circuit court, the decision in the justice court having been against him. Wagner is suing for $37.50 alleged to be due him for wages. Jack contends that he paid to H. Raley $25 upon the order of the plaintiff and stands ready to pay the balance of $12.50 to him. H. R. Johnson is acting for Wagner and Raley & Raley for Jack.

Estates Appraised.

William Hodgson, Thomas Harkins and Enos Moore have appraised the estate of the late Julia A. Beamer at $2000 and F. S. Curl, Charles H. Marsh and W. D. Chamberlain have appraised the estate of the late John L. Duffy at $3000. Both estates consist of real estate.

DEER RACES WITH CYCLIST.

Amical Comes From Woods for Sprint Beside Motorcycle.

SAYVILLE, L. I., Dec. 31.—While riding at the rate of 45 miles an hour on his new motorcycle, Hugh Stigerwald, of Sayville, who had attended a dance in Lindhurst, was startled when a buck came out from the Oakdale woods.

Mr. Stigerwald slackened the speed of his motorcycle, fearful that he would be thrown by the deer. He then was in an awkward and dangerous dilemma, for the buck continued to keep pace with the machine, evidently taking the handle bars for horns.

Side by side the deer and the motorcycle raced, so close was the animal that the chain tore the hide from the deer. For a brief second a horn of the deer and the right handlebar were locked. Stigerwald believes that he was at that time going at the rate of 40 miles an hour.

The rider then applied more power. The noise frightened the deer and he sprang clear of the machine and ran into the woods.

Mr. Stigerwald said that the whole occurrence seemed to have happened in a second.

SUIT COMMENCED AGAINST LOCAL SCHOOL DISTRICT

In an effort to hold the Pendleton school district responsible for the unpaid debts of the Advance Construction Co., which constructed the new high school building and which afterwards became insolvent, The Northwest Steel Co. today commenced suit against the district to collect a balance of $810 and interest, alleged to be due for steel purchased by the Advance company and put into the high school building.

The complaint charges that the district is blamable for not requiring the officers of the Advance company to put up a satisfactory bond to protect the laborers and material men. The bill for steel amounted to $3212, it is alleged, of which all but $810 was paid when the company was declared insolvent. The plaintiff is represented by Platt & Platt of Portland, A. N. Watzel and Raley and Raley.

If the case comes up for trial, it is probable that an outside judge will have to sit inasmuch as Circuit Judge G. W. Phelps is a member of the school board.

HEN PAYS 801 PER CENT.

Arkansas Women Makes $70.37 Profit on Chicken in 10 Years.

LEADHILL, Ark., Dec. 31.—It is fortunate for Aunt Mary Fisher that the income tax was not levied against the percentage of gain from investment instead of against the income itself, because her annual profit from a hen for the last ten years has been 801 per cent.

Aunt Mary's figures show that the hen weighs seven pounds, which at the market price would amount to 88 cents at 12 1-2 cents a pound. The fowl has laid 250 eggs a year for ten years. She did not market more than three-fourths of these at an average price a dozen of 16 1-2 cents, or $13.37 in ten years. From the 27 dozen eggs that were not marketed this old hen hatched out probably 250 chickens, which, when sold at an average weight of two pounds as fryers at 15 cents a pound, brought in 38 cents each, or $57 in ten years, to say nothing of the eggs that some of these chicks laid before they were sold.

Thus the total receipts from the 11-year-old hen have been $70.37, or $7.03 a year. Aunt Mary's per cent of gain from her investment of 88 cents is a clear 801, with just a little bit to spare. The feed? Worms, and the hen harvests them herself.

BOARDER NAMED BY WIFE.

Fascinating Blonde Captured Fickle Husband, Says Complaint.

NEW YORK, Dec. 31.—A summer boarder, blonde and fascinating, is blamed for her troubles by Mrs. Bashe Zipkin in the action for separation which she filed against Benjamin Zipkin, a real estate operator, of Dayton, N. J. Mrs. Zipkin says that after her husband say Miss Tamare Sorokin, who boarded at their farm last summer, he was much changed. Finally, she charges, Mr. Zipkin assigned three cows to Mrs. Zipkin and from the money she obtained for milk she was supposed to maintain herself and son.

When the wife found that she was supposed to attend to the cows as well she says she made a protest that ended in the present action.

In her complaint Mrs. Zipkin says: "My husband is worth many thousands of dollars. He told me that he was treating me this way to force me to give him a divorce and he offered me $500 if I would separate from him, but I declined it."
